FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Port of Kennewick Proposes Formal Rules of Governance Draft document available for public comment

Kennewick, Wash. —The Port of Kennewick is working to adopt a formal policy and procedures document for its Board of Commissioners. The Port Commission and staff invite public comment on the proposed Port Commission Rules of Policy and Procedure document prior to the next scheduled commission meeting on February 22, 2011. The proposed document is available for review on the port website at: www.PortofKennewick.org

The DRAFT Port Commission Rules of Policy and Procedure document was prepared to address the specific roles, expectations of conduct, knowledge, disclosures, prohibitions, legal requirements, and accountability of the elected officials who are responsible for the current operation and future direction of the Port of Kennewick.

The Port of Kennewick's Board of Commissioners and staff invite the public to comment on the proposed Port Commission Rules of Policy and Procedure. The DRAFT document can be found online at www.PortofKennewick.org. The public is invited to send comments directly to the Port of Kennewick's Executive Director, Tim Arntzen via email to ta@PortofKennewick.org or by telephone at 509-586-1186 ext. 2.
